TRAINING CAMP/PRACTICE INFORMATION

- The last 30 minutes of each practice will be open to the media, unless otherwise posted by the Sun Media Relations Department. Media planning to attend a practice should call that morning to check that practice times have not been changed, or that practice has not been canceled.
- All interviews will be conducted after practice sessions. The only exceptions will be after prior clearance has been received from the Sun Media Relations Department. Players and coach are both available after the morning session, while only the coach will be available after the evening session.
- Below please find the Sun policies and procedures that will assist you in your coverage of Sun basketball.

If you have any questions, please contact the Sun Media Relations Department at (860) 862-4073.

WNBA MEDIA ACCESS POLICIES

DAY OF GAME

Shootarounds: All shootarounds will be closed to the media, but all players and the head coach will be available for a 15-minute interview session in a designated interview area. For home games, the Sun usually shoot at 10:00 a.m. at Mohegan Sun Arena. There will be a 15-minute media access period following shootaround. As with all home games, interviews will take place in the gym area. There is no locker room access at the practice facility. For road games, media should contact the Sun Media Relations Department to verify shootaround times and media access periods. Should the team not have a shootaround, it is not required to have a media "shootaround" interview session.

Pre-Game: The league will retain the policy of a 30-minute open locker room beginning 90 minutes before the game. All head coaches must make themselves available for a minimum of 15 minutes beginning anywhere from 15 minutes prior to the open locker room period through the end of the open locker room period.

Post-Game: No later than 10 minutes following the game, all coaches must make themselves available to the media. Following a five-minute window for coaches, all locker rooms will be open to the media.

OFF DAY ACCESS

Practice: The Sun will follow WNBA guidelines regarding coach and player availability. Please check with the media relations department regarding open practice times for that day. No interviews will take place prior to practice without advance arrangements being made through the media relations department. All interviews will take place on the court at the Sun's practice facility (No Locker Room Access).

CREDENTIALS

PRESEASON / REGULAR SEASON GAMES

Media credentials are issued to working media only. Media will-call is located at the VIP Entrance adjacent to Cascade Electronics. Media will-call opens two hours prior to game time. All credentials are non-transferable and any unauthorized use will subject barer to ejection from Mohegan Sun Arena and confiscation of the pass. NOTE: All personal items are subject to search upon entering Mohegan Sun Arena. Individual game credentials should be requested through the Sun Media Relations Department a minimum of 24 hours prior to game time or by 3:00 p.m. Friday for all Saturday, Sunday and Monday contests.

Single game credentials will be issued on a space available basis. Members of the media that have a WNBA pass, please check in at the will-call window to pick up a single game credential. WNBA-issued passes will not be accepted at security checkpoints. Credentials are good for admittance to the arena, press working area, media seating and both locker rooms. Media access to the locker rooms will follow the guidelines stated above.

ABSOLUTELY NO AUTOGRAPHS DURING THE MEDIA ACCESS PERIOD.

Interviews that need advance preparation or special accommodation should be arranged by contacting the Sun's Media Relations Department. This includes all live television interviews for pre- and post-game. Photo credentials will be issued in the same manner as other passes. Newspapers and magazines on assignment may obtain passes by having the photo editor request a single game credential. No freelance photographer credentials are issued without an assignment sheet from an accredited publication.

BOB HEUSSLER

Bob Heussler returns for his seventh season handling play-by-play broadcasts for Connecticut Sun games.

An anchor for the country's first all-sports radio station – New York City's WFAN – Heussler has over 20 years of experience as a basketball play-by-play announcer. He is the radio voice of Fairfield University basketball, does assignment work for NBA TV, and is a former radio play-by-play announcer for UConn basketball and football.

Heussler has also anchored the Connecticut Radio Network's coverage of the Buick Open golf tournament, and the Volvo International and Pilot Pen Tennis tournaments.

A former sports director at WICC in Bridgeport, and sports anchor at WELI in New Haven, Heussler joined WFAN in New York as an update anchor in 1993. He has worked as a network anchor for ESPN Radio, and currently serves as an instructor of student broadcasts at both Yale and Fairfield University.

A graduate of the University of Bridgeport, Heussler lives in Hamden with his wife Marcia and sons Stephen and Gary.

MITCHELL ETESS

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

In his seventh year as CEO of the Connecticut Sun, Mitchell Grossinger Etess oversees team operations on behalf of the Mohegan Tribe, representing the ownership in all matters pertaining to the day-to-day functioning of the franchise on both the administrative and basketball sides of the organization.

Born into a family of hoteliers, Etess brings literally a lifetime of experience in the hospitality industry to his role as Chief Executive Officer of the Mohegan Tribal Gaming Authority (MTGA) and President and CEO of Mohegan Sun. Etess joined Mohegan Sun as a member of the casino's pre-opening team in 1996 as Senior Vice President of Marketing, and was responsible for marketing, food and beverage, sports and entertainment and hotel operations.

In 2004, Etess was promoted to President and CEO to oversee the overall management and operation of Mohegan Sun, the Northeast's premier entertainment destination. In 2006, Etess was appointed CEO of the MTGA, assuming responsibility of the overall management and operation of Mohegan Sun and it's sister entities, including Mohegan Sun at Pocono Downs – Pennsylvania's first slots casino and harness race track in Wilkes-Barre – and five off-track wagering facilities in Pennsylvania.

Prior to his position at Mohegan Sun, he served as Vice President of Marketing at Players Island Resort-Casino-Spa in Nevada. From 1988 to 1994, Etess was employed at Trump Plaza Hotel & Casino in Atlantic City, rising through the ranks from Public Relations Manager to Senior Vice President of Marketing. Before that, Etess was a partner in the advertising and public relations firm of Gordon Etess Associates in Pinehurst, N.C., working there after serving as General Manager at CCA/Holly Inn in Pinehurst.

A graduate of Columbia University, Etess resides in East Lyme with his wife Karen, and their two basketball-playing daughters Piper and Maxie.

JEFFREY HARTMANN

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

In his seventh year as COO of the Connecticut Sun, Jeffrey E. Hartmann is responsible for overseeing the team's finance department, monitoring all aspects of team finances and ensuring that all WNBA league financial reporting requirements are met.

Hartmann is also the Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of the Mohegan Tribal Gaming Authority and Mohegan Sun, where he has been employed since December of 1996. In this position, Hartmann oversees External Development, Construction Management, Information Technology, MTGA Corporate finance and SEC reporting. In addition, he is responsible for daily operations of Mohegan Sun at Pocono Downs, located in Wilkes Barre, Penn.

Prior to his most recent promotion, Hartmann was the Executive Vice President of Finance and Chief Financial Officer of Mohegan Sun from 1996-2004, supervising day-to-day management of the accounting, financial reporting to the Securities Exchange Commission and bondholder and bank relations.

Hartmann has 18 years of experience in the casino and hotel industry. Prior to joining the Mohegan Tribal Gaming Authority, he served as Vice President of Finance at Foxwoods Management Company from August 1991 until December of 1996. A certified public accountant, Hartmann was employed by PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP, as an Audit Manager, from 1984 to 1991.

PAUL MUNICK

PRESIDENT

In his seventh season as President of the Connecticut Sun, Paul Munick manages all aspects of the administrative and basketball operations for the franchise.

Munick is also the Senior Vice President of Sports and Entertainment for Mohegan Sun, overseeing all business operations for its three entertainment venues: Mohegan Sun Arena, Cabaret Theatre and Wolf Den. He also supervises the property's Advertising and Public Relations departments as well as the Sponsorship and Regional Marketing departments.

During his tenure, Munick has been instrumental in bringing world class sporting events to Mohegan Sun Arena, including championship boxing, college and professional men's and women's basketball, Davis Cup tennis, professional bull riding and professional bowling. In a New England exclusive during the summer of 2008, Billy Joel played a record-setting 10 sold out shows at Mohegan Sun Arena. Also in 2008, the Board of Directors for the Academy of Country Music selected Mohegan Sun as the "Casino of the Year," for the second time. It was also honored by the ACM in 2005. Kenny Chesney, the 2008 ACM Entertainer of the Year, returned to Mohegan Sun Arena for the second straight year in May.

Recognized as Connecticut's premier entertainment venue, Mohegan Sun Arena was ranked fourth in Billboard Magazine's 2008 year-end review of the top 10 world-wide facilities with a seating capacity between 5,001-10,000. Billboard also recognized Mohegan Sun Arena for having one of the top 25 box office scores with its string of Billy Joel sellouts. Additionally, Poll Star rated Mohegan Sun Arena – which passed a major milestone in 2008 by distributing its one millionth ticket – at No. 18 on its international rankings chart.

World-renowned performers who have played at the arena include Elton John, Michael Buble, Neil Diamond, Fleetwood Mac, Jimmy Buffet, Britney Spears, Cher, Rascal Flatts, Bon Jovi, Keith Urban, Carrie Underwood, Phil Collins, Shania Twain, Janet Jackson, Aerosmith, Rod Stewart and Justin Timberlake.

Prior to joining Mohegan Sun, Munick served as vice president of athletics and entertainment at Madison Square Garden in New York City. In this role, he was involved in the development and expansion of all business initiatives, including contract negotiations, operations, marketing, sponsorship and television.

Munick was responsible for a wide variety of national events at Madison Square Garden, such as the Goodwill Games, NFL Draft, Millrose Track & Field Championships, Big East Championship and Women's Tennis Associations' Chase Championships (formerly the Virginia Slims Championships), where he served as tournament director. He also managed the Garden's family entertainment offerings and in 1995, re-established the professional boxing program.

Munick holds a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University and a bachelor's degree in economics from Stony Brook University.

CHRIS SIENKO

VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

In his seventh season as the General Manager of the Connecticut Sun, Chris Sienko directs the business and basketball operations for one of the most successful franchises in the WNBA. For the first time in team history, the Sun registered three sellouts in a single season, during the 2008 campaign.

Working closely with Coach Mike Thibault, Sienko has been extremely aggressive during each offseason, using trades and free agent signings to build a team that has qualified for the playoffs every year since the franchise relocated from Orlando following the 2002 WNBA season.

Last season, Connecticut defied preseason predictions, surpassing 20 wins for the third time in six years. The Sun were the first team to qualify for the WNBA playoffs, earning a spot on August 29th.

Nine of the 11 trades in franchise history have happened while Sienko has been the GM of the Sun. Last season, trades brought Barbara Turner, Tamika Whitmore and Tamika Raymond to Connecticut , while previous trades netted Margo Dydek, Asjha Jones and Lindsay Whalen. Sienko was instrumental in helping to sign Svetlana Abrosimova, an unrestricted free agent who joined the Sun following the Olympics in Beijing.

Off the court, Sienko negotiated a new multi-year television contract with WTNH Channel 8 and MyTV9 that led to eight local game broadcasts in 2008, the most ever in Sun history.

Sienko was charged with overseeing a hectic transition period that began when the Mohegan Tribe purchased the Orlando Miracle on Jan. 28, 2003. In the 95 days between that announcement and the Sun's first preseason game against the New York Liberty, Sienko traded for Connecticut icon Rebecca Lobo, hired coach Mike Thibault and the rest of the Sun front office staff, helped negotiate the team's radio and television contracts and managed all of the other day-to-day business functions of the franchise, including player contracts and personnel moves for the team. In addition to his role as GM for the Sun, Sienko was concurrently directing all sporting events for the property, including boxing, wrestling, college and professional basketball, bowling, billiards and more.

Sienko was the impetus behind the creation of the Connecticut Sun Foundation, a not-for-profit founded in 2007. The Foundation awards an annual scholarship and helps high-risk individuals in our community. He has served on the board of the Foundation since its inception.

Sienko sits on several different committees for the WNBA including the Competition Committee, Rules and Regulations, Marketing, Advertising and Sponsorship. He is also on an advisory committee, made up of all the COO's in the league.

This summer, Chris will be overseeing his second WNBA All-Star game, to be hosted at Mohegan Sun Arena in July.

Prior to joining Mohegan Sun, Sienko was an integral part in the start up of another professional sports team, the ABL's New England Blizzard, where he served as vice president of marketing, then general manager. He also was president of the Arthur Robert Group, a small advertising agency in Connecticut for eight years, before becoming vice president of marketing for thePit.com, which was successfully sold to Topps, Inc. in 2000.

MIKE THIBAULT

HEAD COACH

Named WNBA Coach of the Year for the second time in his career in 2008, Thibault led the third-youngest team in the league to 21 victories and its sixth straight berth in the playoffs. The Sun have never failed to qualify for the postseason under Thibault, who owns the second best winning percentage (.623) among active coaches.

Determined to re-tool after a disappointing first-round exit from the 2007 playoffs, Thibault brought in 10 new players to start the 2008 season. Offseason trades for Tamika Whitmore, Barbara Turner and Tamika Raymond gave the Sun a new core of veterans while six rookies also made the opening night roster.

Connecticut's youth, combined with the offseason departure of veteran All Stars Katie Douglas, Nykesha Sales and Margo Dydek led to predictions the Sun would struggle in 2008. Instead, the team jumped out to an 8-1 start, matching its best record over the first nine games of a season in franchise history. Connecticut was the last team in the league to lose on the road, the last to lose two games in a row, and the first to qualify for the playoffs, earning a spot in the postseason with a win at Atlanta on August 29th.

Despite starting two rookies in 28 of 34 games, the Sun established new records for total points (2,690), scoring average (79.1 ppg.), made threes (221) and three-point shooting percentage (33.0) while becoming the third team in franchise history to win more than 20 games in a season.

Eleven different players, including five rookies, started at least one game for the Sun in 2008. A total of 14 players – Connecticut added Erin Phillips and Svetlana Abrosimova to the roster following the Olympic Break – logged minutes.

Thibault's accomplishments were particularly impressive considering he was in the midst of completing a commitment to USA Basketball that began in February of 2006, when he was named an assistant coach on the staff of Anne Donovan. Thibault helped the USA Women's Basketball team win the bronze medal at the World Championships in Sao Paolo, Brazil in September of 2007, and the gold medal at the Summer Olympic Games in Beijing in August of 2008.

Named head coach of the Connecticut Sun on March 7, 2003 – following a four-year stint with the Milwaukee Bucks – Thibault inherited a squad that had never finished above .500. He guided his first team, picked to finish last in the Eastern Conference by many pundits, to an 18-16 record and the first playoff series win in franchise history, a sweep of the favored Charlotte Sting.

Since the beginning of the 2003 season, Connecticut has won 127 regular season games, tied with Detroit for the most victories in that six-year span. Connecticut and Sacramento are the only teams to have six straight winning seasons since 2003, and Connecticut, Sacramento and Detroit are the only teams to qualify for every postseason over that period.

In 2007, Thibault became the third-fastest coach in league history to reach 100 career regular season wins, achieving that milestone in just 159 games with a victory over Houston on July 22nd.

In 2006, Thibault earned his first Coach of the Year Award after leading Connecticut to its second straight 26-8 season, its third straight Eastern Conference regular season title and its fourth straight trip to the Eastern Conference Finals. No other Eastern Conference team has ever won 26 games in a season.

During the 2005 and 2006 seasons, Connecticut was 52-16 (.764) in the regular season. Only Los Angeles and Houston have ever won more games in consecutive seasons. The Sun won 12 straight games from July 16-August 9 of 2006, the third longest winning streak in league history. Ten of those wins came without Nykesha Sales, who was out with an Achilles tendon injury. The Sun were 11-1 overall without Sales, and also went 2-0 without Taj McWilliams-Franklin.

In 2005, Thibault guided the Sun to the best regular season record ever posted by an Eastern Conference team, a 26-8 mark that included a remarkable 13-1 record against the Western Conference. Connecticut's 12-2 start over 14 games was one of the quickest in WNBA history, topped only by Houston's 13-1 start in 1998. The Sun clinched their second straight Eastern Conference regular season title with five games remaining on their schedule. Not since 2001 had a team won as many regular season games as Connecticut did in 2005.

Connecticut went on to repeat as Eastern Conference Champions, sweeping Detroit and Indiana before falling to Sacramento in the WNBA Finals, the first playoff series in league history played under a best-of-five format.

In 2004, Thibault led a Sun team that was a near-unanimous preseason pick to finish last to within one made basket of a WNBA championship. After finishing first in the Eastern Conference during the regular season for the first time in franchise history, the Sun beat Washington and New York on the way to their first Eastern Conference Championship. Connecticut won the first game of the WNBA Championship series with Seattle before eventually falling in three games.

Connecticut's 2004 run was unexpected because Thibault had rebuilt the team following a 2003 run to the Eastern Conference Finals. Concluding the Sun needed to get younger and more athletic, Thibault risked taking a temporary step back to get better. He carried five rookies on the 2004 roster, lowering the average age of his team from 28.4 to 24.2. Among those rookies was Lindsay Whalen, who averaged more than 30 minutes per game as the starting point guard.

The Sun also excelled despite losing starting forward Brooke Wyckoff to a season-ending knee injury on May 3, 2004. Wyckoff and the five other veterans who did not return to the team averaged a combined 30 points, 13.5 rebounds and 7.6 assists per game in 2003.

Under Thibault, Connecticut has been one of the most aggressive teams in the league in the offseason, not hesitating to make deals that improve the roster. Eight of the 10 trades in franchise history have occurred since the team relocated from Orlando to Connecticut before the 2003 season. Among the players acquired by Thibault as a result of these trades are All Stars Lindsay Whalen, Asjha Jones and Margo Dydek.

Thibault entered the NBA ranks in 1978 as a scout for the Los Angeles Lakers, and was promoted to director of scouting and assistant coach in 1980. The Lakers won two World Championships (1980, 1982) during his tenure. From 1982-1986, he was an assistant coach and director of scouting for the Chicago Bulls during a period when the franchise drafted Michael Jordan and Charles Oakley, while also acquiring John Paxson.

From 1987-88 Thibault was the general manager and head coach of the Calgary 88's of the World Basketball League (WBL), earning WBL Coach of the Year honors in 1988.

In 1989, Thibault began a remarkable eight-year run as general manager and head coach of CBA's Omaha Racers. The Racers made the playoffs each season (1989-97) under his watch, bringing home a CBA title in 1993, and a return to the finals in 1994. Thibault was named 1993 Sportsman of the Year by the Omaha sportscasters, and ranks sixth on the CBA all-time coaching victory list (236).

In March of 1995, he coached the silver medal winning USA National Team at the Pan American Games, and in August of 1993, he served as head coach of the gold medal-winning USA National Team at the World Championship Qualifying Tournament in Puerto Rico.

He spent the 1997-98 season as a scout for the Seattle Sonics.

Born in St. Paul Minnesota, Thibault was raised in Saratoga, Calif. He graduated from Bellarmime College Prep in 1968.

Mike and his wife Nanci are active participants in the community, and have been staunch supporters of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation since Mike's days with the Omaha Racers. In 2007, the Thibaults were co-chairs of GREAT STRIDES, the primary fundraiser of the CF Foundation's Connecticut Chapter. Mike and Nanci have two children. Eric will be a senior at the University of Missouri, and is a member of the Sun coaching staff while Carly will be a freshman at Monmouth University next fall, attending on a basketball scholarship.

SCOTT HAWK

ASSISTANT COACH

Returning for his seventh season as an assistant coach with the Connecticut Sun, Scott Hawk works primarily with the team's post players, and is also responsible for helping to scout opponents and college players as well as prepare game plans.

In 2008, Connecticut was No. 2 in the league in total defensive rebounds, and fifth in defensive rebound percentage, even as newcomers Sandrine Gruda, Tamika Whitmore and Tamika Raymond were integrated into the frontcourt rotation.

Asjha Jones pulled down a career-high 201 rebounds this past season, the fourth time in five seasons with Connecticut that she has improved her total rebounds. She also had a career-best scoring average of 17 points per game, the fifth straight year she has improved in that category. Gruda had 110 rebounds in her rookie season while Barbara Turner had a career-high 108 rebounds.

Connecticut has shown steady improvement in every rebounding category since 2003, Hawk's first year with the team. Ranked 13th in rebound percentage, 14th in total rebounds, 14th in total defensive rebounds and 11th in total offensive rebounds following that season, Connecticut steadily improved, finishing the 2006 season ranked first in total defensive rebounds, second in total rebounds and seventh in offensive rebounds. In 2005, the Sun ranked No. 2 in total rebounds, No. 2 in defensive rebounds, and No. 6 in offensive rebounds per game.

Hired on March 27, 2003, Hawk brought more than 20 years of experience coaching men's and women's basketball to the Sun staff. Beginning in 1980, Hawk worked as a teacher, head coach and assistant in some of Nebraska's top high school programs, including Omaha Cathedral, Bellevue West, Plattsmouth and his alma mater, Omaha Creighton Prep. Hawk guided his teams to a pair of Nebraska state championships, and he was twice named Coach of the Year.

Hawk also served as a Director of the Omaha Crusaders, a 501 C3 non-profit corporation created to benefit young people in Nebraska and western Iowa that also happens to be the parent organization of one of the largest high school summer basketball programs in Nebraska. Hawk earned a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Nebraska (Omaha).

BERNADETTE MATTOX

ASSISTANT COACH

In her seventh season as an assistant coach with the Connecticut Sun, Bernadette Mattox works primarily with the team's wing players, and is also responsible for helping to scout opponents and college players as well as prepare game plans.

Last season, Lindsay Whalen had an MVP-caliber season, leading the league in assist average and assist-per-turnover ratio while setting new career highs for scoring and rebounding. Jamie Carey also had a career year while rookie Amber Holt was named to the WNBA All-Rookie Team.

Connecticut led the WNBA in assist-per-turnover ratio (1.25) in 2008, the third time since 2005 that has happened. The Sun have not ranked lower than third in this category since the 2003 season.

In 2007, Whalen and Katie Douglas became the first backcourt tandem in franchise history to each compile 100 assists in a season.

Hired by head coach Mike Thibault on March 27, 2003, Mattox brought 18 years of Division I and international coaching experience with her when she accepted an assistant coaching position with the Connecticut Sun. Prior to her arrival in Connecticut, Mattox made NCAA history when she became the first female to serve as a Division I assistant for a men's team, beginning a four-year stint under coach Rick Pitino at Kentucky in 1990. During the four seasons Mattox was on Pitino's staff, the Wildcats were 108-24 with a Final Four appearance in 1993. She also served as an assistant athletic director at UK from 1994-95.

In 1995, Mattox became the first African American to coach the Kentucky Women's basketball program, guiding the Wildcats for eight seasons. During her tenure as UK's head coach, she led the Wildcats to an NCAA Tournament berth in 1999. She also served as an assistant coach on the 1998 USA Basketball Women's World Championship team, which posted a 9-0 record on the way to winning the Gold Medal in Germany.

Mattox graduated from the University of Georgia, where she was a standout women's basketball player, earning the program's first All-American designation in 1979-80, when she averaged 20.6 points, 4.6 assists and 4.2 steals per game as a junior. Mattox was also the first player in Georgia women's basketball history to earn Academic All-American honors, and she finished her career averaging 15 points per game. She went on to work as an assistant to Georgia head coach Andy Landers for five years.

JEREMY NORMAN

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER, L, AT, HFI

Jeremy Norman returns for his fourth season as the Head Athletic Trainer of the Connecticut Sun. His duties include evaluation and treatment of injuries, and formulating rehabilitation programs specific to each athlete.

Prior to joining the Sun, Norman worked at Procare Physical Therapy, while also serving as the Head Athletic Trainer at Mitchell College. Norman's duties at Mitchell included designing and implementing strength and conditioning programs and establishing nutritional guidelines for all of the athletes under his supervision.

In 2004, Norman was a volunteer assistant athletic trainer with the Connecticut Sun. Prior to that, he served stints as an athletic trainer at Stonington, Montville, and East Lyme High Schools, as well as Connecticut College. Norman was an Employee Services Shift Manager at Mohegan Sun from 1999 to 2003, supervising the employee fitness center. He also assisted the Mohegan Sun Arena medical staff and the Athletic Regulations Committee at various sporting events, including Mixed Martial Arts, WWE, AVP beach volleyball, and National Women's Basketball League events.

Norman is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainer's Association, the National Academy of Sports Medicine and the American College of Sports Medicine.

A 1988 Ledyard High School graduate, Norman completed a degree in sports medicine from Keene State College in 1992. He resides in New London.

JOANNA (JODI) HOPKINS

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Jodi Hopkins returns for her third season with the Connecticut Sun after spending four seasons in the same position with the Charlotte Sting. She will develop and oversee programs for the players that will improve their speed, strength, agility and quickness.

Prior to the WNBA, Hopkins worked at the University of North Carolina for six years, overseeing a year-round training program as the strength and conditioning coach for the women's basketball team. Hopkins also worked closely with the Olympic sports programs of field hockey, women's golf, gymnastics, women's lacrosse, softball, tennis and track. She also assisted with the strength and conditioning program for the football team from 1996-00.

Hopkins was an intern with the Charlotte Sting in 2001, and she also worked for the Greater Charlotte YMCA, designing workouts for members. Additionally, Hopkins runs her own personal athletic training company, J-Hop Fitness, which includes fitness training along with life management services. Many of her clients include athletes from the NBA and NFL.

A Columbus, Ohio native, Hopkins graduated from Ohio University in 1997 with a degree in sports psychology. She is certified by the International Sports Science Association and the USA Weightlifting Club, and she serves as a member of the National Strength Coaches Association and the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Association.

ERIC THIBAULT

ASSISTANT TO THE COACHING STAFF

Returning for his third season on the Connecticut Sun coaching staff, Thibault is responsible for preparing scouting reports on personnel, working as a practice player, participating in individual workouts with players and charting game statistics.

The son of Connecticut head coach Mike Thibault, he will enter his senior year at the University of Missouri, where he is a student in honors journalism and a recipient of a Walter Williams Journalism Scholarship. He has worked as a practice player for the Missouri women's basketball program during the last three seasons.

A 2006 graduate of East Lyme High School, Thibault was a co-captain of both the basketball and golf teams. He helped East Lyme reach the semifinals of the CIAC Class M state basketball tournament as a senior, and was also the individual medalist for the ECC Large School Golf Tournament.

JON WHITKIN

VIDEO COORDINATOR

Jon Whitkin returns for his fourth season with the Connecticut Sun. His duties include breaking down game film, helping the coaching staff game plan, organizing and updating the team's DVD library, and coordinating video exchange with other WNBA teams.

Whitkin breaks down Sun games live, providing various edits for players and coaches at halftime, and will also supply customized edits for Sun players. In addition, Whitkin assembles and organizes game footage of college players to help the Sun coaching staff prepare for the WNBA Draft.

This past offseason, Whitkin returned to the New Jersey Nets for his third season as a part time statistical analyst focusing on defense. In addition, Whitkin has also served as a regional NBA scout for Marty Blake for the past three seasons.

Prior to joining the Sun, Whitkin worked in the basketball operations department at Harvard for both the men's and women's programs. He oversaw the breaking down of opponent film, the updating of the recruiting data base, organizing team travel and marketing efforts.

Whitkin was also an assistant video coordinator with the Philadelphia 76ers during the 2004-05 season, coordinating video research of high school, college and international players for the 2005 NBA Draft. Additionally, he helped with video breakdown of opposing teams for scouting purposes.

Whitkin worked as an associate baseball scout in the northeast region for the Toronto Blue Jays from 2003 to 2004, aiding with statistical analysis and player evaluation.

A Swampscott, Mass. native, Whitkin graduated cum laude from Elon University in 2002 with degrees in sports management and business.

ABBY GORDON

EQUIPMENT MANAGER & TRAVEL COORDINATOR

Abby Gordon returns for her third season as the equipment manager and travel coordinator for the Connecticut Sun. She is responsible for all arrangements involving team equipment, practices and travel.

Gordon graduated from the University of Connecticut in May of 2007 with a degree in Exercise Science. While at UConn, Gordon served as team manager for the women's basketball, softball and soccer programs. She also worked in athletic communications and athletic facilities.

Team Notes:

- The Sun clinched the first Eastern Conference Championship in franchise history, earning their first trip to the WNBA Finals with a sweep of the New York Liberty.
- The Sun captured its first Eastern Conference regular season title with the victory over Indiana on September 19th.
- Nykesha Sales, Taj McWilliams-Franklin and rookie Lindsay Whalen are selected to play on the WNBA All-Star team that faces the United States Olympic Team in a tune-up game at Radio City Music Hall in New York City.
- Starting forward Brooke Wyckoff is lost for the season after suffering a torn anterior cruciate ligament in her knee during a scrimmage at Connecticut College on May 3rd.

Team Notes:

- With a two-game sweep over the Charlotte Sting in the Eastern Conference Semifinals, the Sun advance to the Eastern Conference Finals for the first time in franchise history.
- For the second straight year, Sun players Shannon Johnson and Nykesha Sales represent the team in the WNBA All-Star Game. For Sales, it is her fifth-straight appearance in the All-Star Game.
- With Debbie Black and Shannon Johnson in the backcourt, the Sun became just the third team in league history to have two guards with more than 500 career assists.
- On May 24, 2003, the Sun opened the season at their new home, Mohegan Sun Arena, in Uncasville, CT. The Sun lost the game, 82-73, to the defending champion Los Angeles Sparks in front of a sellout crowd.
- Before the start of the 2003 season, the Orlando Miracle relocated to Connecticut, where it began play as the Connecticut Sun.

History
On April 24, 1996, women's basketball announced "We Got Next" as the NBA Board of Governors approved the concept of a Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) to begin play in June of 1997.

Since that day in 1996 there have been many firsts for the WNBA:

Val Ackerman – the first president of the WNBA

Sheryl Swoopes – the first player signed to the WNBA

Cynthia Cooper – the league's first Most Valuable Player

Houston Comets – the first WNBA Champions

Lisa Leslie – the first WNBA player to dunk (7/30/02 vs. Miami)

Lauren Jackson – the first international player to win MVP (2007)

Candace Parker – the first rookie to earn the league's MVP honor (2008)

Sylvia Fowles – the first goaltending call (vs. LA 6/3/2008)

The inaugural WNBA season tipped off on June 21, 1997, with the New York Liberty taking on the Los Angeles Sparks at the Great Western Forum in Inglewood, California. A crowd of 14,284 watched as Sparks' guard Penny Toler scored the first basket in WNBA history. The Liberty defeated the Sparks, 67-57.

A Growing Game
The influence of the WNBA can be seen in the explosive growth of organized women's basketball over the past twelve seasons. An estimated 100 million women play basketball worldwide, and our league reflects this trend, featuring 23 international players from 16 countries and territories at the end of the 2008 season. Female AAU youth basketball participation has increased +277% since 1990 (from 28,840 to 108,758 players). Female high school basketball participation has increased 18% since 1990 (from 387,802 to 456,967 players). And female NCAA basketball participation has increased 43% since 1990 (from 10,551 to 15,096 players).

Key Rules
Ball size: 28.5" (high school and NCAA women's)
3-point line: 20'6 1/4" (International)

Several key rule changes have been implemented over the last few seasons:

- The format of WNBA games changed to four 10-minute quarters instead of the previous two 20-minute halves.
- In addition, the 24-second shot clock replaced the previous 30-second clock. It is now reset to 14 seconds when a defensive foul or other defensive violation occurs with less than 14 seconds remaining on the shot clock. It is left unchanged when a defensive violation occurs with 14 seconds or more remaining on the shot clock.
- The backcourt rule requires offensive teams to bring the ball across the mid-court line within eight seconds rather than 10 seconds.
- The timeout rule requires officials to grant requests for a timeout (full or 20-second) by a player in the game or the head coach. Previously, only players in the game were allowed to call timeouts.
- Team rosters now consist of 11 players.

All-Star Game
The 2009 WNBA All-Star Game will be held at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, CT on Saturday, July 25. ABC will televise the game which tips off at 3:30 p.m. ET.

In 2008, the WNBA did not hold an All-Star Game due to the month-long, mid-season break for Summer Olympics. The league did, however, conduct its annual All-Star Salute: Inspiring Women Luncheon in San Francisco on July 30. The luncheon, at which noted TV journalist Robin Roberts received the Inspiring Woman Award, also served as a send off for the U.S. Olympic Women's Basketball team. While the entire 12-member U.S. team was comprised of WNBA players, a total of 39 current and former WNBA players dotted the rosters of 10 of the 12 countries participating in the Olympics.

The 2007 WNBA All-Star Game, the league's eighth such contest, was played in front of a sellout audience on July 15 at the Verizon Center in Washington, D.C. A crowd of 19,487 fans witnessed the East defeat the West, 103-99 as Cheryl Ford of the Detroit Shock clinched the MVP honors. A key highlight of the All-Star festivities in 2007 was the second annual All-Star Salute: Inspiring Women Luncheon, featuring keynote speaker and Secretary of State Dr. Condoleezza Rice.

Inspiring Women
The Inspiring Woman Award is an annual honor that celebrates an individual who, on a daily basis, demonstrates her ability to inspire others through her commitment, passion and dedication to work, family and community. Past honorees include Good Morning America's Robin Roberts, former Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice and the WNBA All-Decade Team.

Marketing
The WNBA has garnered unprecedented marketing support for a women's professional sport, and enjoys long-standing partnerships with major national and international brands such as adidas, Discover Card, Gatorade, Nike, and T-Mobile. New partners in 2008 included such major companies as McDonald's, Kia Motors, IHOP, Pitney Bowes and HP. Starwood Hotels and Resorts was announced as a partner in 2009.

The WNBA's marketing partners utilize the league to support women's sports and reach its strong fan base of women, families and young girls through advertising in WNBA nationally-televised games, national promotions, player endorsements and special events.

Through the WNBA's extensive, highly integrated relationship with adidas, the sporting goods and apparel giant not only serves as the official outfitter of the WNBA – having unveiled new uniforms across the league in 2007 – but also as the presenter of the 2007, 2008 and 2009 WNBA Drafts and in 2008 became the first-ever presenting partner of the WNBA's entire postseason, including both the Playoffs and Finals.

The 2008 season also featured the first WNBA marketing partnership in China with Peak, China's number one domestic basketball footwear brand, following the announcement in February.

Attendance / TV Ratings
Fueled by incoming stars Candace Parker, Sylvia Fowles and Candice Wiggins, the 2008 Draft, the most anticipated in WNBA history, drew significantly higher TV and Internet numbers. The rating on ESPN2 was up 69 percent over the previous year's telecast, and viewership was up 137 percent. Similarly, WNBA.com shattered the all-time daily traffic record to the site during the WNBA Draft, with nearly 324,000 visits, more than doubling the previous record set during the 2007 Draft. Page views were up 127 percent; site visits increased 106 percent.

The WNBA on national television (ABC and ESPN2) finished up 19% both in ratings and viewership in 2008.

Regular season attendance in 2008 increased for the second straight season. The 2.21% increase came on the heels of a 1.68% increase in 2007. The increased attendance in 2008 also featured 46 sellouts, nearly triple the 17 registered in 2007 and double the previous record of 23 set in 2004.

Just one year earlier, total attendance for the 2007 WNBA Finals between the Phoenix Mercury and the Detroit Shock was 74,178, establishing a new all-time WNBA Finals record. In addition, Game 5's crowd of 22,076 at The Palace of Auburn Hills tied the all-time, single-game attendance record for the WNBA Finals (also set on Sept. 16 2003 of the 2003 WNBA Finals, Los Angeles at Detroit). In addition, the WNBA experienced double-digit increases in viewership during the 2007 postseason.

Viewers recognize ESPN2 as the television destination for the WNBA. "WNBA Tuesdays" continued throughout the 2008 season, offering fans a dedicated night to tune in and watch their favorite WNBA players.

In July 2007, the WNBA signed a new, 8-year TV deal with ESPN that tips off in 2009 and runs through 2016, the WNBA's 20th season. The agreement, which calls for ABC, ESPN and ESPN2 to telecast WNBA games, includes rights fees, a first for any women's pro team sports league in the U.S.

Global Reach
Now in its second decade, the WNBA has a wide impact on overseas markets. In 2008, for the second straight year, WNBA games and programming reached a record 203 countries in 32 languages, surpassing the 2006 total of 198 countries. Included were new television agreements in six countries: Argentina, Bulgaria, Jamaica, Pan Africa, South Korea and China. In addition, for the third consecutive year, fans in China were able to view WNBA action via live Web casts on NBA.com/china.

WNBA rosters for the 2008 season featured 25 international players from 17 countries and territories. Among the league's international contingent are the Indiana Fever's Tammy Sutton-Brown (Canada), the San Antonio Silver Stars' Sophia Young (St. Vincent) and the Sacramento Monarchs' Ticha Penicheiro (Portugal).

10th Anniversary
The WNBA's 10th anniversary season, celebrated in 2006, featured significant interactivity with fans playing a key role in selecting the league's All-Decade Team, the WNBA's Greatest Moments and the starters for the 2006 WNBA All-Star Game.

The WNBA Greatest Moment presented by AOL.com was unveiled during Game 1 of the 2006 WNBA Finals. Fans, who were able to log on to www.aol.com/wnba, voted Teresa Weatherspoon's half-court, buzzer-beater – a shot that propelled the New York Liberty to victory in Game 2 of the 1999 WNBA Finals and on to a deciding Game 3 against the Houston Comets – as their favorite moment in the WNBA's 10-year history. Prior to that, initial voting was conducted in four distinct categories as fans voted for winners of the all-time Greatest Shot (Weatherspoon), Greatest Pass (Sue Bird of the Storm leading a fast break during the 2003 All-Star Game), Greatest Milestone (Lisa Leslie of the Sparks throwing down the first dunk in WNBA history on July 30, 2002) and Greatest Inspirational Moment (Edna Campbell of the Monarchs making a triumphant return to the court on Aug. 13, 2002, after battling breast cancer). The winner from each comprised the final ballot.

Key Highlights
Six WNBA teams now fall under the independent ownership model: the Atlanta Dream, Chicago Sky, Connecticut Sun, Los Angeles Sparks, Seattle Storm and Washington Mystics. Force 10 Hoops, L.L.C., the entity owned by Seattle businesswomen and civic leaders Anne Levinson, Ginny Gilder, Lisa Brummel and Dawn Trudeau, purchased the Seattle Storm on Feb. 28, 2008 while on Oct. 17, 2007, Atlanta businessman J. Ronald Terwilliger was awarded an expansion franchise, the Atlanta Dream. In addition, the Los Angeles Sparks opened the 2007 season with new ownership after Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson, two long-time season ticket holders, bought the Sparks on Dec. 7, 2006. They joined Sheila Johnson's Washington Mystics, Michael Alter's Chicago Sky and the Mohegan Tribe's Connecticut Sun as independently-owned WNBA franchises.

The 2008 WNBA Draft presented by adidas took place in Tampa, Florida on April 9, marking the third straight year the draft was held immediately following the NCAA Women's Division I Championship Game and conducted in the same city as the Final Four. The Los Angeles Sparks made Candace Parker the top overall pick; Sylvia Fowles was selected second by the Chicago Sky and Candice Wiggins third by the Minnesota Lynx. For the first time in WNBA history, all five starters from one college team were selected in the draft as Parker, Alexis Hornbuckle, Shannon Bobbitt, Nicky Anosike and Alberta Auguste – teammates on the University of Tennessee's national championship squad – were chosen. Parker would go on to be the first player to earn the WNBA's MVP award in her rookie season.

The Dawn Staley Community Leadership Award was announced in 2006 and is now presented annually to the player who best exemplifies the characteristics of a leader in the community and reflects Staley's contagious leadership, spirit, charitable efforts and love for the game. Tamika Catchings of the Indiana Fever won the inaugural award for the 2007 season. A member of the WNBA's All-Decade Team, Staley, who retired following the 2006 season, established herself as one of the greatest ambassadors in women's basketball history while also demonstrating outstanding leadership qualities as a coach on the collegiate level and as a philanthropist and humanitarian.

The WNBA All-Decade Team was selected in 2006 as part of a season-long celebration of the league's 10th Anniversary. Chosen from among 30 nominees by fans, a panel of national and WNBA-market media and the league's current players and coaches, the team is comprised of the 10 best and most influential players from its first 10 years of play. Named to the team were legends and current players including, Sue Bird, Tamika Catchings, Cynthia Cooper, Yolanda Griffith, Lauren Jackson, Lisa Leslie, Katie Smith, Dawn Staley, Sheryl Swoopes and Tina Thompson. Players earning honorable mention status were: Ruthie Bolton, Chamique Holdsclaw, Ticha Penicheiro, Diana Taurasi and Teresa Weatherspoon. Van Chancellor, who led the Houston Comets to consecutive WNBA championships in the league's first four seasons, was named the WNBA's Coach of Decade. Chancellor also was named to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2007.

Seven women serve as owners of WNBA teams: Dr. Sheila Johnson (Washington Mystics), Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson (Los Angeles Sparks) and Anne Levinson, Ginny Gilder, Lisa Brummel and Dawn Trudeau (Seattle Storm). An eighth, musical artist Michelle Williams, formerly of "Destiny's Child," is a minority owner of the Chicago Sky.

Johnson, a co-founder of Black Entertainment Television, became the WNBA's first African-American female owner on May 24, 2005 when she joined Ted Leonsis' Lincoln Holdings LLC, which in turn purchased the Washington Mystics from Washington Wizards' owner Abe Pollin. Williams, also African-American and a former member of the group "Destiny's Child," became the first female musician to become part-owner of a professional sports team, joining the company of Jay-Z (NBA New Jersey Nets), Usher (NBA Cleveland Cavaliers), Nelly (NBA Charlotte Bobcats), Julio Inglesias (NBA Miami Heat) and Jon Bon Jovi (AFL Philadelphia Soul).

In 2008, Candace Parker became the first WNBA player to win Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player of the Year in the same season. The first selection in the 2008 WNBA Draft, she earned both honors after leading the league in double-doubles and rebounds per game, while also ranking second in blocks per game and fourth in points per game. She also became just the second player joining Lisa Leslie, to dunk in a WNBA game.

Also in 2008, the Detroit Shock became just the second WNBA team to win at least three titles, sweeping the San Antonio Silver Stars to win their third title in six seasons. The Houston Comets won the first four championships from 1997-2000.

In 2007, the Detroit Shock and Phoenix Mercury combined to score the most points in a game in WNBA Finals history during Game 1 when Detroit edged out Phoenix 108-100. The Mercury matched the Shock's output with 108 points of their own to tie the WNBA Finals record for points in a game.

In 2007, the Mercury became the first team to win the WNBA Championship on the road as they defeated the Shock in the fifth and deciding game on September 16 at The Palace of Auburn Hills.

Lisa Leslie of the Los Angeles Sparks was named MVP in 2006 for the third time in her career after having also earned the honor in 2001 and 2004. Leslie joined the Houston Comets' Sheryl Swoopes as the only players in WNBA history to capture MVP honors three times. Two players have won the award twice in a career: Houston's Cynthia Cooper (1997, 1998) and Seattle's Lauren Jackson (2003, 2007). The others to capture MVP honors are Yolanda Griffith (then with Sacramento in 1999) and Los Angeles' Candace Parker (2008, when she later became the first rookie in league history to earn the award).

Lauren Jackson (Storm) added to her illustrious career on July 27, 2007 when she became the youngest (26 years, 77 days) and fastest (209 games) to score her 4,000th career point. Three days earlier, she tied the league record for points in a game (Diana Taurasi) when she poured in 47 points at Washington.

Diana Taurasi (Mercury) rewrote the WNBA scoring records in 2006 when she led the league with 25.3 points per contest, became the first WNBA player to top 800 points in a single season (860), and the single-season mark for three-point field-goals (121) and the single-game mark for points (47, a number later equaled by the Storm's Lauren Jackson in 2007).

Lisa Leslie of the Los Angeles Sparks became the first WNBA player to capture the regular-season, All-Star and Finals MVP awards during the 2001 season. Leslie also became the first WNBA player to top the 5,000-point mark when she surpassed that mark in 2006. Houston's Tina Thompson and Detroit's Katie Smith, respectively, became the second and third players to top the 5,000-point plateau for their WNBA career, each reaching the milestone in 2008.

During the 2008 season, Tina Thompson (Houston) and Katie Smith (Detroit) both reached 5,000 points for their WNBA careers, joining Lisa Leslie as the only players to accomplish this feat.

Katie Smith had previously become the first player in United States women's professional basketball history to surpass the 5,000-point plateau on July 13, 2005. She has since recorded her 6,000th point on Aug. 16, 2007. Smith's achievement includes her totals from three seasons in the ABL and her WNBA career.

Also during the 2008 season, Ticha Penicheiro of the Sacramento Monarchs became the first player to ever hand out 2,000 career assists.

Sheryl Swoopes, who earned MVP and Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2000 and 2002, made WNBA history with the league's first triple-double (14 points, 15 rebounds, 10 assists) vs. the Detroit Shock on July 27, 1999.

One current head coach also has played in the WNBA: Jenny Boucek (Monarchs). In 2007, when she took over the Monarchs, Boucek became the first woman to serve in the WNBA as a player, assistant coach and head coach.

Three current head coaches have played in the NBA: Michael Cooper (Sparks), Bill Laimbeer (Shock), and Corey Gaines (Mercury).

Three current head coaches have served as assistant coaches in the NBA, including Mike Thibault (Sun); Michael Cooper (Sparks) and Don Zierden (Lynx).

WNBA Cares

Through the WNBA Cares initiative, the league is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on promoting a healthy lifestyle and positive body image, breast health awareness, youth and family development, and education. WNBA teams and players donate countless dollars and hours each year through league programs including Breast Health Awareness, WNBA Green Week and Go Red For Women, WNBA Fit, Read to Achieve and Jr. WNBA.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

WNBA COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Through WNBA Cares, the WNBA is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on programs which promote a healthy lifestyle and positive body image, increase breast and women's health awareness, support youth and family development, and focus on education.

WNBA FIT
WNBA Fit encourages girls and women of all ages to learn more about their bodies and the importance of physical fitness through programs related to health, fitness, nutrition and self-esteem. Programming inspires girls and women to get started on "being fit" through small changes in their daily routine. The content of the program is communicated and delivered through a 'Team' of Spokespeople and National and Local Events.

GO RED FOR WOMEN
The WNBA and the American Heart Association have formed an alliance to promote the Go Red for Women campaign. GRFW encourages women to learn more about heart health, and raises awareness of the risks of heart disease in women.

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS
For twelve years, the WNBA Breast Health Awareness program has focused on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative. The WNBA and its teams have raised over $2 million to aid in the fight against breast cancer.

WNBA GREEN
The WNBA is committed to a long-term environmental plan through the implementation of sustainable business practices and procedures that decrease the league's carbon footprint and contribute to a clean, healthy environment. The WNBA Greening Initiative is an innovative program designed to reduce the environmental impact of the league's operations and events.

READ TO ACHIEVE
RRead to Achieve is a year-round, league-wide initiative supported by NBA, WNBA and NBA D-League teams that promotes the values of reading and on-line literacy and encourages families and adults to read regularly with young children. The program includes special reading time-outs, the donation of books and literacy materials to schools and community based organizations, and the creation of Reading and Learning Centers and Reading Corners throughout the world.

JR. WNBA
By stressing fundamental skill development, teamwork, sportsmanship and positive adult participation, the Jr. WNBA aims to develop a life-long passion for the game of basketball by providing a support structure that not only encourages participation, but also makes the game fun and rewarding for players, coaches, officials and parents. The Jr. WNBA believes that lessons learned on- and off-the-court as a member of a team are lessons that are useful in building relationships at school, home and work.

PARTNERSHIPS
In reaching our community relations goals, the WNBA is proud to partner with the following organizations:

- American Cancer Society
- American Red Cross
- Feed the Children
- Girls Inc.
- Habitat for Humanity
- KaBOOM!
- Make-A-Wish Foundation
- National Osteoporosis Foundation
- American Diabetes Association
- American Heart Association

CONNECTICUT SUN COMMUNITY RELATIONS

CIAC Girls High School Basketball Luncheon & Recognition
On March 18th, the Connecticut Sun hosted the Fourth Annual Connecticut Interscholastic Athletic Conference Girls High School Basketball Luncheon, honoring the players and coaches of the eight teams that would play for state championship titles. Sun Head Coach Mike Thibault served as the keynote speaker. Approximately 200 guests attended the event, including Rich Coppola, Sports Director for Fox 61, Mitchell Etess, President & CEO of Mohegan Sun and Bruce "Two Dogs" Bozsum, Mohegan Tribe Chairman.

The Connecticut Sun will recognize the accomplishments of the four high school girls' basketball championship teams on Sunday, June 14. The four schools – Bacon Academy, Hillhouse High School, Norwich Free Academy and Old Lyme High School – will be honored on court during a halftime ceremony. Sun General Manager Chris Sienko will present each team with a plaque commemorating their special journey, and the Sun will display a framed jersey from each team on the arena concourse throughout the 2009 season.

Community MVP Award
The Community MVP Award honors an individual or organization that has made an overwhelming impact on the lives of others. The award is presented prior to each Sun home game to those making exceptional and lasting contributions to our community through their dedication and humanitarian spirit. Last year's award recipients included Dr. Herster Barres, president of Reforest the Tropics; Joan Hurley, Connecticut's 2008 Teacher of the Year; Habitat for Humanity of Southeastern Connecticut and Norwich Human Services.

Community Ticket Program
The Connecticut Sun Community Ticket Program provides underserved children and local non-profit organizations the chance to experience a Connecticut Sun game. Because of generous sponsors like Bank of America and Pitney Bowes, over 700 individuals had the opportunity to attend an exciting basketball game and be exposed to positive female role models in 2008.

Donation & Player Appearance Requests
The Connecticut Sun is committed to partnering with the community in order to enhance the lives of families and youth. Through these partnerships, we provide support in the areas of youth education, fitness and basketball outreach. We strongly believe community involvement is not only the responsibility of our team, but also an opportunity to show our support for the great number of organizations which work tirelessly to help those in need.

In 2008, the Connecticut Sun donated over $24,000 in autographed items and game tickets to over 170 organizations. Additionally, Sun players, coaches and front office staff contributed over 700 hours of community service.

Our Community Relations department handles all requests for community donations and appearances (including player, coach, mascot and dance team.) All requests must be received in writing at least 60 days prior to the scheduled event date and must be on organization/company letterhead. Requests should be sent to:

Connecticut Sun
c/o Community Relations Requests
1 Mohegan Sun Blvd.
Uncasville, CT, 06382.

Requests can also be faxed to:
(860) 862-4010.

Fast Break to Reading
The Connecticut Sun & Pitney Bowes have partnered together to raise awareness around literacy through a new initiative: "Fast Break to Reading". As part of the 2008 partnership, Pitney Bowes sponsored five (5) Reading Time-Outs throughout Connecticut. Sun players, along with representatives from Pitney Bowes, were on hand at each event to read to area youth and discuss the importance of education. The Sun have once again partnered with Pitney Bowes in 2009 to expand the program and provide complimentary Sun tickets to local nonprofit organizations.

Go Red for Women
The Connecticut Sun joined forces with the American Heart Association to help fight back against heart disease, the number one killer of women in the United States. Heart disease survivors and supporters received a red and white autographed basketball from Sun players as part of the pre-game ball exchange. Additionally, information about Go Red for Women and the American Heart Association programs and other issues were available through in-game features and along concourse. Also, Sun players wore Go Red for Women t-shirts during warm-ups.

Holiday Caravan
The Connecticut Sun is dedicated to serving the community all year long. We are especially focused on reaching out to youth during the holidays. In December, Head Coach Mike Thibault and Blaze, the Sun mascot, joined front office staff to deliver gifts to patients at Hasbro Children's Hospital in Providence, the Ronald McDonald House of Connecticut, Shriner's Hospital in Springfield, MA and Yale New Haven Hospital.

Kids' Christmas
To help celebrate the holiday season, the Connecticut Sun sponsored the annual Kids Christmas holiday party for Norwich residents. Sun general manager Chris Sienko, "Blaze" the Sun mascot, members of the Solar Power Dance team and Norwich Mayor Benjamin Lathrop distributed gifts provided by the Connecticut Sun and Kids' Christmas, as well as toys donated by the general public, to more than 450 children. In addition to the gift distribution, all of the children present had an opportunity to be photographed with Santa and Blaze. Face painting, balloon artists and crafts were also available for everyone that participated in the event.

Pack the Place Pink
The Connecticut Sun, along with the WNBA, is focused on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer. As part of the Sun's Breast Health Awareness Initiative, the team partnered with the William Backus Hospital to host two "Pack the Place Pink" game nights. In addition to providing pink ribbons to all fans, the Sun players wore special pink uniforms that were auctioned on wnba.com and presented pink and white basketballs to breast cancer survivors. There was also a pre-game reception held for survivors, their families and the medical staff from the Cancer Services division of Backus Hospital.

Surprise & Delight
Prior to the 2008 season opener, the Sun partnered with Dunkin Donuts to "surprise & delight" local fans. Amber Holt, Danielle Page and Tamika Whitmore visited three Dunkin Donuts stores, purchased coffee and muffins for patrons and even worked the drive-thru window!

Later in the season the players returned to Dunkin Donuts to host two basketball skills clinics. Asjha Jones, Danielle Page, Tamika Raymond, Barbara Turner and Lindsay Whalen demonstrated proper shooting, ball-handling and defensive skills to over 200 kids from the East Haven and Hartford areas.

Thanksgiving with Thames River Family Program

CONNECTICUT SUN FOUNDATION

Connecticut Sun Foundation
In 2007, the Connecticut Sun established the Connecticut Sun Foundation, a charitable organization dedicated to improving the lives of Connecticut's youth by supporting athletic and educational endeavors. Interests include providing educational scholarships to high school seniors, and grants for the refurbishment of basketball courts and equipment. The Sun takes pride in giving back to the community where our fans live, work and play. We are committed to using our resources to leave a lasting legacy in Connecticut, supporting fitness and education programs that will help to create the foundation for healthy and rewarding lives.

Bright Horizons Scholarship
Each season the Connecticut Sun Foundation awards a $10,000 scholarship ($2,500 annually) to a graduating high school student who will attend an accredited four-year college or university in the state of Connecticut. Applicants for the scholarship must meet a variety of criteria, which includes but is not limited to, a demonstrated financial need and minimum SAT or ACT scores. All applicants must provide information detailing their extracurricular school activities and honors, secure two letters of recommendation that reference their academic and community status as well as a 500-word essay describing the greatest challenge in their community and how they hope to make a positive impact. Previous winners include Rebecca Wilcox, a 2007 graduate of Terryville High School and current sophomore at the University of Connecticut; and Audrey Sperry, a 2008 graduate of Windsor High School and Connecticut College freshman.

Tip-Off Breakfast
This season marks the Second Annual Connecticut Sun Tip-Off Breakfast. Sun season-ticket holders, fans, supporters and the local business community will hear the team's expectations and goals directly from the 2009 roster and participate in a Q&A session with head coach Mike Thibault. All proceeds from the event will benefit the Connecticut Sun Foundation.

Golf Tournament
Last year's Inaugural Connecticut Sun Foundation Golf Tournament raised over $20,000 for the Foundation's athletic and academic initiatives. The Second Annual Golf Tournament is scheduled for Monday, June 29 at the Mohegan Sun Country Club at Pautipaug. Participants will join the entire Sun roster, coaches and front office staff for a round of golf, dinner and a live auction. All proceeds from the tournament will benefit the Connecticut Sun Foundation.

INFORMATION

ABOUT MOHEGAN SUN ARENA

Home to the WNBA's Connecticut Sun, the 10,000-seat, state-of-the-art Mohegan Sun Arena opened in November of 2002, and is now internationally recognized as a premier entertainment facility. Ranked fourth in Billboard Magazine's 2008 year-end review of the top 10 worldwide venues with a seating capacity of between 5,001-10,000, Mohegan Sun Arena distributed its one millionth ticket last year. Poll Star rated the venue 18th on its international rankings chart for 2008, and Billboard also recognized Mohegan Sun Arena for having a top 25 box office score with a remarkable 10 Billy Joel sellouts. Also in 2008, the Board of Directors for the Academy of Country Music selected Mohegan Sun as the "Casino of the Year," for the second time. It was also honored by the ACM in 2005. Kenny Chesney, the 2008 ACM Entertainer of the Year, returned to Mohegan Sun Arena for the second straight year this April. The arena has hosted championship boxing, college and professional men's and women's basketball, Davis Cup tennis, professional bull riding and professional bowling. This year, the WNBA All Star Game returns to Mohegan Sun for the second time since. World-renowned performers who have played at the arena include Elton John, Michael Buble, Neil Diamond, Fleetwood Mac, Jimmy Buffett, Britney Spears, Cher, Rascal Flatts, Bon Jovi, Keith Urban, Carrie Underwood, Phil Collins, Shania Twain, Janet Jackson, Aerosmith, Rod Stewart and Justin Timberlake.

ABOUT MOHEGAN SUN AND THE MOHEGAN TRIBE

Mohegan Sun, owned by the Mohegan Tribe, is one of the largest, most distinctive and spectacular entertainment, gaming, shopping and meeting destinations in the United States. Situated on 240 acres along the Thames River in scenic southeastern Connecticut, Mohegan Sun is within easy access of New York, Boston, Hartford and Providence and located 15 minutes from the museums, antique shops and waterfront of Mystic Country. What began with Casino of the Earth in 1996 has evolved into a legendary destination that now includes Casino of the Sky and Casino of the Wind, with nearly 350,000 square feet of total gaming space; The Shops at Mohegan Sun, featuring more than 60 retail shops and dining venues ranging from food court-style to gourmet; the 10,000-seat Mohegan Sun Arena for world-class sporting events and concerts; and a 34-story luxury hotel, featuring 1,200 guest rooms and suites, premier meeting and convention space and a world-class spa.
